This team's spirit was evident from the beginning in the prep area and if followed them throughout the day. They cheered the teams before them. The showed true teamwork throughout their performance, supporting each other even ending with a gracious bow and big hug! The recognized each other's strengths and contributions. This team left with as much enthusiasm as the came in with. It poured out into the hallways with them. Not only did their team's chosen landmass stand alone, so did their DI spirit! With their good sportsmanship, they proved even on-line dating can't replace human interaction!
